

Off the Menu

Nicole Bengiveno/New York Times

By FLORENCE FABRICANT

Published: July 7, 2009

OPEN NOW

VUE This restaurant and lounge, on the penultimate floor of a boutique hotel, offers a view of Brooklyn rooftops from the dining room as well as a vista of Lower Manhattan and a glimpse of the Statue of Liberty from the outdoor dining terrace and rooftop lounge. Chris Cheung, above, the consulting executive chef, worked at the Monkey Bar and is the chef at China 1 in the East Village. He tweaks baby back ribs, roast chicken and red snapper with Asian touches: Hotel Le Bleu, 370 Fourth Avenue (Fourth Street), Park Slope, Brooklyn, (718) 625-2177.

<http://www.nytimes.com/2009/07/08/dining/08off.html? r=2&scp=1&sq=VUE%20RESTAURANT&st=cse>